About Wereldmuseum Rotterdam

Rotterdam's Wereldmuseum (World Museum) is a museum and business location in one, where art, gastronomy and elegance come together.

The location has a number of different rooms available, each with its own unique character and feel, and with intriguing historical elements throughout. All rooms are suitable for seminars, conferences, receptions and dinners. The Wereldmuseum can host groups of 8-450 persons. There is also an outdoor patio so guests can get a breath of fresh air while enjoying a stunning view of the Rotterdam skyline. The former Prince Hendrik Royal Yacht Club dates from 1851, but has since been refurbished with all the latest technology and comforts to be a versatile and modern multifunctional space.

The largest room is the former Ballroom, with a six metre-high ceiling and capacity for 200 in a theater configuration or a 150-seat dinner. Hardwood floors, chandeliers and original details make the ambience stylish and authentic. In combination with the Salon, the theater configuration can be expanded to 250 persons. This room can be furnished and arranged to suit your needs. A number of packages including room and museum visit are available. It is also equipped with free Wi-Fi.

The Wereldmuseum is in the Scheepvaartkwartier (Maritime District), and is accessible by tram (line 7) or water taxi. It's also a ten-minute walk from the Leuvehaven metro station. Parking is available in the nearby Erasmus Bridge parking garage.
