About ACS Rotterdam

ACS audiovisual solutions offers temporary audio-visual solutions to hotels, meeting and congress centres, companies, fairs and events.

ACS rents out a complete range of audio-visual equipment and associated tools. It provides advice on planning and approach, and supplies expert technicians who, as well as their ordinary work, can deal with unforeseen problems. ACS also constructs complete temporary congress spaces, accommodating anything from 300 to 30,000 participants, customised to the client's specific wishes.

ACS can also supply ICT solutions for the congress sector, including webcasting, e-posters, performance management and speaker service centres, via its sister concern, Eventresult.
