About Boijmans Van Beuningen depot

About the depot

Depot Boijmans Van Beuningen was opened on November 5, 2021 by King Willem-Alexander. The first publicly accessible art depot, designed by architectural firm MVRDV, is unique in the world and is located next to Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen in the Museum Park in Rotterdam. Nowhere in the world does such a working building exist, which, in addition to making the museum collection public, provides a glimpse behind the scenes of museum work, which also houses private and corporate collections. The new depot is a Gesamtkunstwerk; the building and the design of the outdoor space make it a new Rotterdam icon.
