About Euromast

Discover Rotterdam in the luxury suites of the Euromast. Upon arrival, a bottle of champagne with delicious snacks will be waiting for you and after 10 p.m., when the visitors have left, you can enjoy a breathtaking view in peace and quiet on the viewing platform. The lights of the city and harbor make the panorama extra magical.

The Euromast, designed by Rotterdam architect HA Maaskant and built in 1960 for the Floriade, reaches an impressive height of 185 meters, making it one of the tallest buildings in Rotterdam. Whether you want to relax in the freestanding bath, enjoy the view from your own private balcony or simply unwind in the king-size bed, the Euromast looks forward to your visit.
