About Stayokay Rotterdam

Stayokay Rotterdam is a hostel with 49 rooms, situated in the world famous Kubuswoningen. These unique houses on concrete pillars were built by the Dutch architect Piet Blom in 1984 and a number of them were renovated and transformed into a hostel in 2009.

Stayokay Rotterdam has a contemporary and stylish interior that was designed by a design agency. The hostel has two rooms for business purposes. The largest room has a capacity of 30 people when set up as a theatre. Lunch and dinner can also be provided by Stayokay.

The hostel is on the border of the Laurenskwartier and the Maritiem District, close to the Oude Haven, a historic inland harbour with numerous restaurants and bars. Metro station Blaak and various tram stops are situated nearby. Parking is available at the Markthal car park, which is within easy walking distance.
