About HMC Reservations

With the Hotel Booking Tool from HMC Reservations, guests can easily book a hotel of their choice prior to a conference in Rotterdam.

Where one participant wants to spend the night near the conference location, and another in the center, a third wants peace and quiet on the outskirts of the city. Each hotel also has its own price tag. With this tool you can make your own choice based on location and budget.

How it works exactly? HMC Reservations searches for the best hotels based on your wishes and negotiates the conditions and prices. A website with the hotels is created for each conference. Participants can make their choice and reservation via this website.

In the meantime, HMC keeps track of the reservations for you: how many rooms have been reserved and in which hotels? This way you can keep a full view of the hotel reservations without stress.
