About Philogirl

Philogirl is a boutique marketing, communications & design agency from Rotterdam with an eye for detail.

Focused on themes such as:

- Healthcare: Artificial Intelligence, Virtual Reality, robotics, lifestyle, burnout
- Science: climate, one health, viruses, citizen science
- Social themes: poverty, debt

Within these themes, all possible marketing, communication and design questions are addressed for the clients. Philogirl often translates very abstract themes into concrete means of communication and events that not only change thinking, but actually inspire new behavior. With every project it is always about making (more) impact and not about selling more products. Philogirl likes to think along with the client in terms of content.

Philogirl is active in areas of strategy development: marketing, communication, PR, design.

Communications & PR
