About RiF010

Water sports

RiF010 is for everyone. For young and old, beginners, pros, and everything in between. You can catch your very first wave there, but also ride barrels and do airs. RiF010 is the very first surf pool in the world in the middle of a city. The wave installation can be adjusted as desired: are there only advanced surfers in the water? Then the waves can be taken a notch higher. But there's more. RiF010 rents canoes and SUPs from the beach house, and at regular intervals you can take diving lessons in the basin. There are also cycling clinics on the pump track that you can find in the Overschie district.

Beach tent in the city center

Hungry after a long surfing session? Or do you just feel like chilling with a unique view? Take a seat at RiF010's restaurant for breakfast, lunch or dinner. On the menu you will find real beach bar classics; dishes that get you back on your feet after a long session. Also open to non-surfers: experience your first date in the romantic heated loveseats or relax on the terrace with friends or family.

Do you want to organize or reserve a party for a large group? Please contact RiF010
