About Worldevents

With 34 years of experience in organizing meetings, overnight stays and events, a meeting with Worldevents is easily arranged. They offer the complete solution for both business and private events.

Worldmeetings, a leading intermediary in the field of business hotel stays and meetings with an annual booking value of more than €40 million, has recently expanded its services to include event management.

In response to growing demand from both national and international clients, a new brand has been developed: Worldevents. The enthusiastic Event Team organizes all conceivable events, from large-scale conferences and company parties to exclusive meetings and unforgettable social events.

Entering into sustainable partnerships, whereby quick and efficient quotations are possible and partners jointly guarantee service & quality, are the basis for success.
